Our mission is to know, love and serve God wherever we are and to inspire others to do the same by our thoughts, words and deeds.

Thoughts for Reflection:

“Life in a prison cell may well be compared to Advent; one waits, hopes, and does this, that, or the other--things that are of no real consequence--the door is shut, and can be opened only from the outside.”

~ Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Letters from Prison--November 21, 1943

“Maybe the surprise, when Christ returns, will be that he was here all along. Maybe the surprise will be that, ahead of time himself, he has been calling, gathering, enlightening and sanctifying the meek and all the rest of those who bear his name. Come, Lord Jesus.”

~ Mary Hinkle Shore

What signs of hope do you see in your community, where people or institutions are working on real answers to the issues facing us?

OUR APPROACH TO GOD

Call to Worship:

In Advent we watch and wait, and prepare to welcome the Christ Child into the world.

Come, Lord Jesus, come!

In Advent we prepare for a life of discipleship, and watch faithfully for signs of God’s light breaking into the world.

Come, Lord Jesus, come!

As we wait, dear One, we watch for signs of your action in the world, actions of compassion and grace breaking in.

Come, Lord Jesus, come!

Holy God, we recognize that we do not know the day or the hour, but we know that the day is near.

Come, Lord Jesus, come!

Be born anew in our world and in our lives.

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

In the beginning you spoke and at your word your Spirit moved over the waters, bringing order, light, and life out of chaos. By your hands you formed us in your image and breathed life into us. When we turn away from you and our love fails, your love remains constant. You lead us through the deep and chaotic waters and you call us from our scattered lives to that place of hope. Therefore, with choirs of angels and archangels and with those of every time and place, we give you praise and glory:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Holy, mighty and tender God, in time you sent Jesus and in him we saw your promises made flesh. Dwelling among us, good news was seen and heard and our world transformed. He healed the sick, fed the hungry, and ate with sinners. In his suffering, death and resurrection, he delivered us from sin and darkness and revealed a living and redeeming hope for all people. And so, remembering Christ's life, love, death, and resurrection, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ was promised. Christ was born.
Christ has died. Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Gracious God, pour out your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these your gifts of bread and wine, that the bread we break and the cup we share may be the communion of the body and blood of Christ. Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honour are yours, almighty God, world without end.

As Christ taught his disciples we now pray together:

Our Father who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever and ever, Amen.

It is no secret that the health of any relationship is dependent, in large part, to regular communication. Our relationship with God is no different. Being intentional about spending time in prayer enables us to sharpen our ability to see just where and how God continues to be at work in the world around us. In short, prayer is one of the most effective ways to strengthen and grow in our faith!

Things to Pray for this Week:

- ✓ We pray for congregations welcoming guests into their churches during Advent and Christmas. Let us show and practice the spiritual gift of hospitality.
- ✓ We pray for those who have experienced the death of a loved one this year. May God's spirit of peace rest on them during the holiday season.
- ✓ We pray for presbyteries as they oversee the ministers and congregations under their care.
