Mission Moment

With rolling blackouts and limited access to research data, the Rev. Francisco Marrero-Gutiérrez, a retired pastor, former Dean and Vice-Rector of Seminario Evangélico de Teología in Matanzas, Cuba was struggling to complete his PhD. At the request of the Rector and hearing that increasing their teaching capacity is a top priority for the Seminary, the PCC agreed to host Francisco -- Francisco spent four months in Canada researching and writing his doctoral dissertation on the hermeneutics in revolution, a critical analysis of the reading of the Bible in Cuba. Things to pray for this week...

We pray for the graduates of all our colleges that friendships of honesty, integrity and candour would flourish for the sake of building up the body of Christ.

We pray for the mission projects supported by the Atlantic Mission Society.

We pray for the Committee on Church Doctrine as they meet this month to discuss how Presbyterians can be faithful to the gospel of Jesus Christ in a changing world.

We pray for Hummingbird Ministries, where Indigenous people may encounter Jesus Christ and simultaneously uphold Indigenous Circle practices, and for its director, the Rev. Mary Fontaine.

Scripture Reading: Isaiah 6:1-8 (NRSVUE)

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty, and the hem of his robe filled the temple. ²Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. ³And one called to another and said,

“Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts;
the whole earth is full of his glory.”

⁴The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. ⁵And I said, “Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!”

⁶Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. ⁷The seraph touched my mouth with it and said, “Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.” ⁸Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” And I said, “Here am I; send me!”

Scripture Reading: Luke 5:1-11 (NRSVUE)

Once while Jesus was standing beside the Lake of Gennesaret and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, ²he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gotten out of them and were washing their nets. ³He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. ⁴When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.” ⁵Simon answered, “Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.” ⁶When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to burst. ⁷So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. ⁸But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’s knees, saying, “Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!” ⁹For he and all who were with him were astounded at the catch of fish that they had taken, ¹⁰and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.” ¹¹When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.
