A huge thank you to everyone for your support again this year of our KD Lunch mission project. It has been a pleasure to welcome the students of Three Oaks at lunch time, to share stories and a warm meal including KD, rolls, apples and cookies. Thank you for your donations that make this program so successful. We were serving over 100 students weekly as we finished up. A special thank you to the volunteers who come regularly as we share much fellowship, stories and laughter. Blessings for a great summer and we look forward to resuming again in September.

Mission Moment

As the cost of living continues to rise across Saskatchewan, many individuals and families are finding it increasingly difficult to make ends meet. Saskatoon Native Circle Ministry (SNCM) recognizes that, in these challenging times, people need both physical and spiritual care. In addition to offering counseling and spiritual guidance, SNCM provides a safe space for those seeking comfort and direction. Through its drop-in centre, SNCM serves warm meals and offers a range of programs, including a mid-week worship service, an arts program, and both crisis and spiritual counseling. Rooted in First Nations traditions and gospel teachings, the ministry offers prayer, friendship, and hospitality to those in need. Over time, SNCM has flourished, not only in the number of people it serves but also in the depth of spiritual connections and the strength of the community bonds it fosters. SNCM receives support from Presbyterians Sharing.

SPC Mission Statement

Our Approach to God

Call to Worship:

We come to worship God,
For God is just and compassionate. God is love.

Where will we find God?
God is among the hungry and thirsty,
in the face of a stranger, reaching out to us.

Let us seek God so that we can serve God.
Let us worship God and seek God's healing, reconciling grace.

Hymn #423 Sing Your Praise to God Eternal

Opening Prayers

Our Father who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever and ever, Amen.

Things to pray for this week...

We pray that young people preparing to go to camps and vacation bible schools will learn about God's love in a safe and fun environment.

We pray that God protects families forced to flee from conflict and persecution, seeking refuge across borders. We give thanks for those who welcome the stranger through refugee sponsorship.

As Haiti continues to face political and social unrest, we pray for the safety of our partners and the communities they serve.

We pray for Knox College and its new students who will be invited to register for program studies in early July. We pray for continued discernment of God's call to equip and prepare them for service.

Scripture Reading: John 16:12-15 (NIV)

¹² "I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear. ¹³ But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all the truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. ¹⁴ He will glorify me because it is from me that he will receive what he will make known to you. ¹⁵ All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will receive from me what he will make known to you."

Scripture Reading: Romans 5:1-5 (NIV)

Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we ¹have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ²through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we ³boast in the hope of the glory of God. ³Not only so, but we ⁴also glory in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; ⁴perseverance, character; and character, hope. ⁵And hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us.
