An offering plate can be found on a small table in the center aisle. By receiving peoples' gifts each week, worshipers are given an opportunity to contribute to the ministry that Christ does in and through our church family. During the Stewardship Moment of the service, these gifts will be brought forward and dedicated to this purpose.

Mission Moment

In Ghana, communities are increasingly affected by the impacts of climate change. Families face daily difficulties like poverty and limited livelihood options. People with disabilities often face steeper barriers to education, health care and employment. PWS&D helps address these issues with our partner, the Garu Community-Based Rehabilitation (CBR) Program. Dominic Anane, who has a hearing impairment, was trained in climate-resilient agricultural practices and received improved seeds and breeding livestock through the CBR program. "The CBR and PWS&D are God sent. They supported me in engaging in agricultural production. I planted maize, soya bean and sorghum. My crops are looking good, and I am raising sheep alongside. This will help meet the livelihood needs of my family and get us out of poverty," Dominic said.

"to know, love and serve God wherever we are and to inspire others to do the same by our thoughts, words and deeds"

SPC Mission Statement

Our Approach to God

Call to Worship:

The world can feel foolish and lost, forgetting the ways of God.

Yet we gather, seeking the wisdom that comes from the Lord.

God looks upon the earth, searching for hearts that understand.

We come with open hearts, longing to walk in God's ways.

Though trouble and injustice surround us, God remains our refuge.

We place our trust in the One who shelters and restores.

Let us worship the God who brings hope out of despair.

We rejoice in the Lord, our help and our salvation.

(Inspired by Psalm 14)

Hymn #534 All Who Hunger, Gather Gladly

Opening Prayers

Our Father who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever and ever, Amen.

Postlude

As you prepare for this morning's service to begin, you are invited to reflect on the following...

"No one has ever become poor by giving."

~ Anne Frank

"The miracle is this: the more we share, the more we have."

~ Leonard Nimoy

*When have I felt that what I had to offer was "not enough"?
How often do I calculate limits before considering what God might do?*

Things to pray for this week...

Loving God, you hate nothing you have made, and your grace knows no bounds. You created us for yourself, and our hearts are restless until they find their rest in you. Create in us clean hearts and turn us around to follow you more nearly.

We pray for worship leaders and musicians as they prepare services of worship during Lent and Easter.

We give thanks for human rights advocates, land defenders and all people working for justice and peace for the common good of all.

We pray for students at Knox College as they step away from scheduled classes for their Reading Week. May they experience renewal and refreshment as they prepare to return for the final assignments and commitments of the winter semester.

Scripture Reading: John 6:1-15 (NIV)

Some time after this, Jesus crossed to the far shore of the Sea of Galilee (that is, the Sea of Tiberias), ² and a great crowd of people followed him because they saw the signs he had performed by healing the sick. ³ Then Jesus went up on a mountainside and sat down with his disciples. ⁴ The Jewish Passover Festival was near.

⁵ When Jesus looked up and saw a great crowd coming toward him, he said to Philip, "Where shall we buy bread for these people to eat?" ⁶ He asked this only to test him, for he already had in mind what he was going to do.

⁷ Philip answered him, "It would take more than half a year's wages to buy enough bread for each one to have a bite!"

⁸ Another of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, spoke up, ⁹ "Here is a boy with five small barley loaves and two small fish, but how far will they go among so many?"

¹⁰ Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." There was plenty of grass in that place, and they sat down (about five thousand men were there). ¹¹ Jesus then took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed to those who were seated as much as they wanted. He did the same with the fish.

¹² When they had all had enough to eat, he said to his disciples, "Gather the pieces that are left over. Let nothing be wasted." ¹³ So they gathered them and filled twelve baskets with the pieces of the five barley loaves left over by those who had eaten.

¹⁴ After the people saw the sign Jesus performed, they began to say, "Surely this is the Prophet who is to come into the world." ¹⁵ Jesus, knowing that they intended to come and make him king by force, withdrew again to a mountain by himself.

Enough for All

There's enough for all if we would learn to share it
There's enough for all if we would learn to see
There's enough for all, let's bring our loaves and fishes
And offer them to Jesus
There's more than enough for you and me.
