Hello everyone; As we begin the final quarter of the year, our budget statement to Oct. 31/26 shows our total income to be $120,748.10 For the same period, our total expenses are $162,161.32, resulting in a deficit of $41,413.22 There have been some added maintenance costs for 2026 which is part of our deficit. Some of these costs may be transferred to other funds prior to our year end, and will be reported in December.
Thank you, -- F&P Committee.

So... What's a Presbyterian, Anyway?

Two evenings for the curious, the questioning, & the just-plain-confused.

Ever wondered what makes Presbyterians Presbyterian? Why do we do things the way we do? What do we believe? And what does it actually mean to belong to a church?

Join us on August 16th & 23rd (7 pm) here at the church for two relaxed, informal evenings of conversation and discussion as we explore faith, church, and belonging. Along the way we will cover the Presbyterian tradition, the Christian faith, and life together at Summerside Presbyterian Church.

Whether you're relatively new to SPC, have been attending for years, are thinking about becoming a member, or are simply curious, you're welcome!

No tests. No homework. No pressure. And absolutely no obligation to join! Just good conversation, an opportunity to ask questions, and perhaps a chance to discover something new about the church we share.

Remembrance Sunday

"to know, love and serve God wherever we are and to inspire others to do the same by our thoughts, words and deeds"

SPC Mission Statement

Our Approach to God

Call to Worship:

We gather today to witness God's love shining among us.
We gather to find hope in Christ.

We are drawn together into the circle of God's marvelous light,
As loving disciples of Christ, the Light of the World.

We seek the courage to reach out and let our light shine
For generations to come.

Come, let us worship God together.

Postlude

* *

As you prepare for this morning's service to begin, you are invited to reflect on the following…

"Any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind."
~ John Donne (1572-1631

What stories, traditions, or expressions of faith have been passed down to you by previous generations? Which of these would you most like to pass on to others?

Things to pray for this week…

We pray for those serving in the Canadian Armed Forces and all military chaplains who bring spiritual guidance and support to our troops and their families at home and abroad.

We pray for the Rev. Lara Scholey, Moderator of the 151st General Assembly, as she participates in meetings of the Life and Mission Agency and Assembly Council this month.

We pray for the people, ministries and mission of the Presbytery of Eastern Han-Ca.

Scripture Reading: 2 Kings 5:1-15a (NIV)

Now Naaman was commander of the army of the king of Aram. He was a great man in the sight of his master and highly regarded, because through him the Lord had given victory to Aram. He was a valiant soldier, but he had leprosy.

2 Now bands of raiders from Aram had gone out and had taken captive a young girl from Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. 3 She said to her mistress, "If only my master would see the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy."

4 Naaman went to his master and told him what the girl from Israel had said. 5 "By all means, go," the king of Aram replied. "I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So Naaman left, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold and ten sets of clothing. 6 The letter that he took to the king of Israel read: "With this letter I am sending my servant Naaman to you so that you may cure him of his leprosy."

7 As soon as the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his robes and said, "Am I God? Can I kill and bring back to life? Why does this fellow send someone to me to be cured of his leprosy? See how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me!"

8 When Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his robes, he sent him this message: "Why have you torn your robes? Have the man come to me and he will know that there is a prophet in Israel." 9 So Naaman went with his horses and chariots and stopped at the door of Elisha's house. 10 Elisha sent a messenger to say to him, "Go, wash yourself seven times in the Jordan, and your flesh will be restored and you will be cleansed."

11 But Naaman went away angry and said, "I thought that he would surely come out to me and stand and call on the name of the Lord his God, wave his hand over the spot and cure me of my leprosy. 12 Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Couldn't I wash in them and be cleansed?" So he turned and went off in a rage.
13 Naaman's servants went to him and said, "My father, if the prophet had told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more, then, when he tells you, 'Wash and be cleansed'!" 14 So he went down and dipped himself in the Jordan seven times, as the man of God had told him, and his flesh was restored and became clean like that of a young boy.

15 Then Naaman and all his attendants went back to the man of God. He stood before him and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the world except in Israel.
